

DIRECTOR'S CUT from THE SCREEN SOCIETY COLLECTION

Not every version is meant for the public.

In the golden age of Hollywood, true power never lived in front of the camera—but behind it. Where scenes were rewritten, endings reshaped, and every detail decided with intent. The director alone knew what the world would see... and what was better left unseen.

A Director's Cut was never just longer. It was uncompromising.

This cigar carries that same philosophy. Deep, precise, and unapologetically bold. Every draw feels deliberate-refined, controlled, and final.

DIRECTOR'S CUT is for those who don't accept the story as it's given. They create their own version.
